"All the world's a stage.
And all the men and women merely players.
They have their exits and their entrances.
And one man in his time plays many parts."

SHAKESPEARE

FOREWORD

St. Francis, God's Troubadour, encouraged men to live beautifully their role of life on the stage of the world, God directing.

"The world's a stage where God's omnipotence, His justice, knowledge, love and providence, do cct the parts."
—Du Bartas

ON GRADUATION DAY the curtain comes down, all too soon, on the third act of the Drama of Life. This third act was known as "The High School Period". Just as the first and second acts were entitled "Pre-School Days" and "Grade School Years".

On Graduation Day tne curtain rises again for the fourth and final act of life's drama. During the course of Act IV it becomes more and more evident that the Drama of Life is, after all, not the real show at all! But only a sort of "screen test" or "talent tryout" for the real Play that will have a beginning but no end.

DEDICATION

We, the graduates of 1958, take pleasure in dedicating this ALVERNIAN to you, Sister M. Ronald. You are an inspiration to all of us. On Graduation Day every senior you meet will have some personal reason to say:

"Thank you, Sister Ronald, for the times you made me see right from wrong; for the time you spent in counseling me about the choice of a life's career; and for the optimistic words of praise inspiring me to do better and to love Christ more."

We wish to bequeath this memory book as an acknowledgment of our indebtedness to you for "everything". Remember us always.

Class of '58

Dear Graduates of 1958:

Unless each of you has been attuned to the spirit and ideals of Mount Alvernia High as you have walked through these last four years, any final message will scarcely establish satisfactory rapport at this late hour.

But you have been a receptive group, weighing the knowledge presented to you sometimes with the perception of adults. Continue to sharpen your mental acumen. Keep on in your search for the truth; find it and follow it at any cost in whatever field you spend your life. Simplify the one important problem of life—saving your soul—by imitating and living close to the Christ whom St. Francis, your patron, made live again in his own life so well.

You leave Mount Alvernia in possession of all that a citizen of two worlds—of earth and of heaven—needs to face life. Use that one life well.

Together with the faculty, I wish you God's blessing on every work you undertake in His name.

★ Activities

. . . and on . . . and on . . .

The Day of Recollection was one on which we put aside our school duties and dedicated ourselves wholly to God. Here some of the girls are praying the Stations of the Cross, one of the exercises of the day.

Father Urban discusses one of the very interesting questions from the Question Box with Jean Stankovic, Judy Heinz, Louise Streiff, Peggy Mohler, Rita Yukas, and Mary Lou Kaib.

Pat Baldauff and Helen Gorski read some of the pamphlets available at St. Francis Retreat House.

DAY OF RECOLLECTION

Father Roland blesses the class rings of the Seniors. These rings are mounted on two poles which are decorated with green and gold, the school colors.

RING CEREMONY

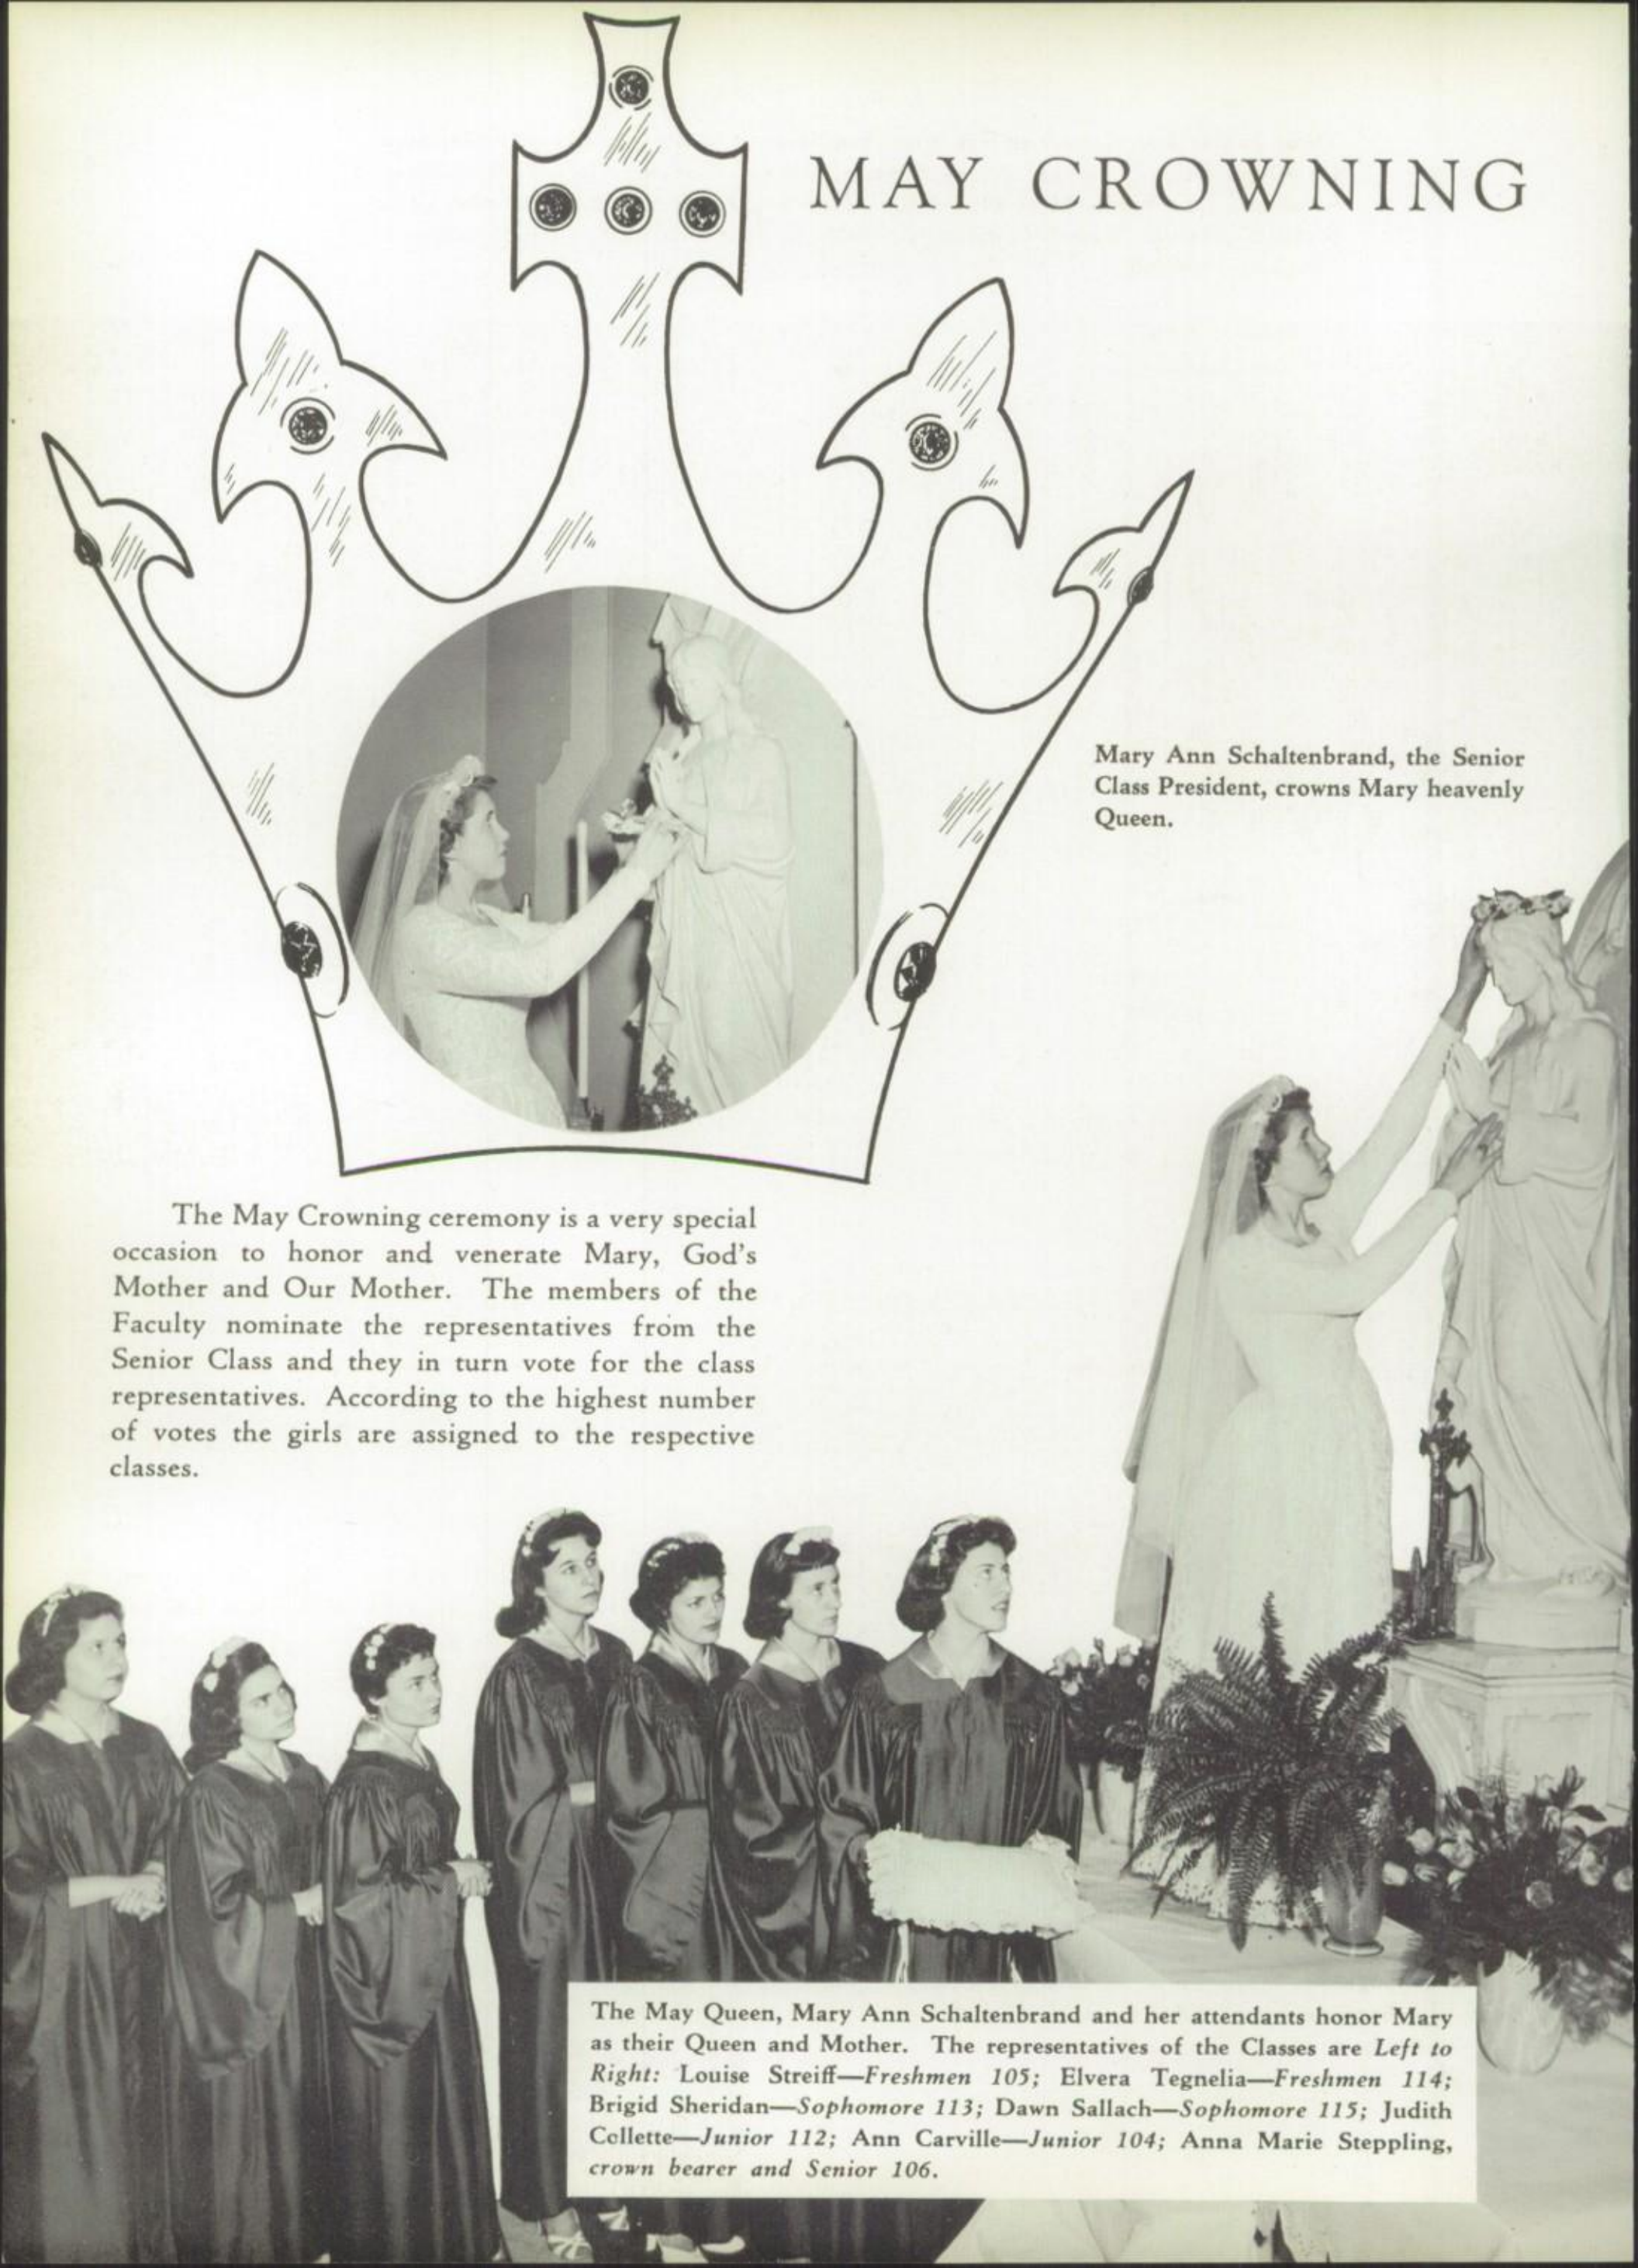
The ring ceremony is one of the biggest activities of the Mounties. It is usually held on or near some Franciscan feast, since St. Francis is the patron of the school. October 3, 1957 marks the memorable day for the class of '58. The ceremony consists of the blessing of the rings, a short talk on the meaning and purpose, distribution of the rings and finally, benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The entire student body is present for the ceremony.

The girls are anxiously awaiting their rings as Father Roland distributes the coveted treasure.

MAY CROWNING

Mary Ann Schaltenbrand, the Senior Class President, crowns Mary heavenly Queen.

The May Crowning ceremony is a very special occasion to honor and venerate Mary, God's Mother and Our Mother. The members of the Faculty nominate the representatives from the Senior Class and they in turn vote for the class representatives. According to the highest number of votes the girls are assigned to the respective classes.



The May Queen, Mary Ann Schaltenbrand and her attendants honor Mary as their Queen and Mother. THIRD ORDER

Third Order members, seeking a closer union with God, follow a path formed ages ago by the great Saint Francis of Assisi. It also aids in the development of Christian morality in solving current problems of the day.

CLASS PLAY . . .

Seventeenth Summer

Judy Heinz and Mary Ann Schaltenbrand, double casting, played "Angie," the female lead in the Senior Class Play, "Seventeenth Summer." Larry Gaertner portrayed "Jack," the male lead.

"Seventeenth Summer," by Anne Coulter Martens, is a play about the love affair of a boy of 18 and a girl of 17 that occupied three months of the summer in a typical American locale.

To watch the play is to revel for a few hours in small town heat, the slow pace of living, Fourth of July parades . . . and most of all, the breathless expectant sense of a seventeen-year-old.

Mrs. Molly Spiro directs a rehearsal as Pat Baldauff, Eddie Brandt, Larry Gaertner, Judy Heinz, Brigid Sheridan, Tony Palito, Kathy Sullivan, Anna Marie Steppling, and Mary Ann Schaltenbrand listen attentively to her instructions.

WINTER FORMAL

Anna Marie Steppling excitedly recalls the events of December 27, 1957.

Larry Gaertner, unfortunately having not been there, patiently absorbs her personal memories.

Pat Baldauff, Peggy Mohler, Mary Ann Schaltenbrand, and Brigid Sheridan, Senior Class Officers, display the mission banner which the Seniors retained the entire first semester. Nice going, eh!

Is Betty Jane Riddle out? Bonny Haberman, Bernadette Fitzgerald, Loreen Lofink, Eileen Sistek, Dolores Bugrin, Judy Berthold, Norma Braden, and Jackie Kust think so.

PHYSICAL ED

Strike! Lenore Besterman is a pretty good bowler. Mary Ann Wiegand, Mariann Sippel, and Linda Schmidt wait turns as Rita Yukas sets up pins (milk-cartons) and Jean Stankovic keeps score.

The Student Council, with the assistance of the adviser, Sister M. Ronald; has achieved many accomplishments such as revising the handbook, sponsoring a Halloween Party, conducting a Courtesy Campaign, and presenting a formal installation of officers.

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS ARE: Audrey Goetz, Vice President; Mary Ann Schaltenbrand, President; Suzanne Susanny, Treasurer; Judy Wukits, Secretary.

P. T. G.

The above group represents a typical group which is usually seen at the Mount on the regular meeting Sunday.

Our P.T.G. believes the best attitudes for dealing with teenagers stems from a memory of their own teenage action. With this in mind, they have worked and planned many projects beneficial to the school. We will remember the Chtistmas gifts and bingos, the joyfully-anticipated school picnics, their solicitude in transporting us to various schools for tournaments—all a part of direct action for our good.

Sister M. Ronald scrutinizes the recent check presented by President, Mr. Theodore Cvetic.
